too much attention to his family af

So he has filed suit against Mrs.

his business.

Fiscus' wife filed suit in District Court last week for a divorce, and he alleges that his mother-in-law was the cause. He further alleges that the defendants in the case have threat-ened to injure him and that they induced his wife and child to leave

RAINS ARE HELP

Crops More Aided Than Hurt

By Heavy Downpour

The abundant rains of the last reek have been generally favorable to crops, according to C. D. Reed, official Iowa weather man. Haying has been delayed a little and clover damaged, but on the whole the

Gets $13,000 From Estate

After Suing Cousin

Mrs. Holmes to Charles J. Holmes.
Mrs. Holmes testified that following her marriage her husband told her he had another wife, but had been divorced. She said she only lived with him three weeks, when they separated

City. Kas., and no record that he

CITY HAS NEW RIVAL

Iown City is trying to crowd Des Moines out of the "Who's

Two years ago "Who's Who in America" showed 62 Des Moines men and women who had won national prominence.

while Iowa City had only 38.
The 1920-31 volume credits Des Moines with 59 and gives Iowa City 54.
Professors are responsible for the University City's big boost.

WILL FOSTER DIVORCED

Marguerite Foster was granted a divorce from Willard Foster on the grounds of cruelty in the District Court Tuesday. The case was tried the same day that the petition was filed.

Mrs. Foster was also awarded the

The first response to The News' call for suggestions in renaming S. W. 18th-st was received Wednesday from J. W. Noble, 181 S. W. 20th-st, who of coined name

a combination of the first letters

REDS CONTINUE ADVANCE

LONDON, July 14.—An official wireless dispatch from Moscow to-day said the Bolaheviki were continuing a successful advance on the

SAVES BABE

FROM FIRE

Mrs. Guy Boylan performed a won-derfulity heroic deed vesterday in rescuing 2-year-old Junior Pavion from what looked to be certain death. No one knows but herself what prompted her to deah into the roaring flames and bring the child to safety, and it required speed and quick thinking on her part to accomplish her brave act.

in the names of the Republican and Democratic nominees

president and vice president

Who" column.

Hotel.

whole front

had been divorced could be found.

8-ERS MAY BOLT THIRD PAR'

Dear Mayor Barton:-

I see by the papers that you are the "goat" in all this rumpus stirred up over the Sunday show staged by the Yankee Robinson circus.

Councilman Elliott and Councilman Budd tell the church folks they didn't have a thing to do with permitting the circus to show here on

The license was issued in your department, and therefore you are solely to blame. You have my sympathy, Mr. Mayor,

You have been in office only a short time. But by this time you doubtless know what "passing the buck" means,

I've been watching City Council perform pretty closely for several years, and, to tell you the truth, some of the members make me laugh at times. They're certainly past masters at "passing the buck" and in getting from under while the getting is most the getting is good.

As a contractor, you built houses. They were good houses, too, so folks tell me.

When you've been in office longer, Mr. Mayor, when you've learned as much about the game of politics as you know about the contracting business, you'll be able to dodge the brickbats of an outraged nopulace quive as adeptly as your more experienced colleagues on the Council It takes time to learn to "pass the buck" successfully, Mr. Mayor. It might interest you to know, however, that the advance represen-tatives of the Yankee Robinson circus called on the various newspa pers to learn what their attitude would be toward a Sunday show.

This advance representative told me that he had seen each and every member of the Council, and that each and every member had con-sented to a Sunday show. I don't know whether that's the gospel truth, but that's what the circus representative told me, Perhaps the information will help you to bear the burden of blame your colleagues now seem to have slipped over onto your shoulders.

At any rate, Mr. Mayor, you have my sympathy.

If your colleagues are going to "pass the buck." get into the game yourself. Teach them it's a pastime two can play at. Respectfully yours

Humane Officer Young:-We do not hear much these days eruelty to animals and im proper feeding housing or driving.

I was surprised, therefore, in reading your report for the month of June, to learn that over 450 animals were given attention by the can understand.

Yet you report the chief cause of complaint registered during June was inhuman treatment of horses by drivers, and lack of proper feed.

It is a good thing that there is weekly luncheon. some organization such as the low:

Humane Society to multiple dumb animals.

In these days of lofty "cultural" and "humanitarian" ideals, we are in danger of forgetting the practical days of such things while soaring in the clouds of line talk.

The Iowa Humane Society is warching after the practical side.

Keep up the good work, Mr.

Sincerely yours.
W. E. B.

To City Council:-

Two years ago, Policeman George Mattern was shot by a bandit while doing his duty. He died a few wooks later at a hospital.

His wife was left with two children, aged 6 and 2, and a pension of $35 a month.

Now, Jobless and with two small children to support on her meager pension. Mrs. Mattern is called upon to pay a hospital bill of $150 for the care of her husband before he Policeman Mattern was employed by the city of Des Moines to pro-tect the lives and property of citizens here.

He received his fatal wound while performing his duty.

The city should pay all expenses involved in caring for Policeman Mattern from the time he was shot until he died. This includes his hos pital bill.

A bill for $150 is a small amount for the city to pay.

It is a tremendous obstacle for Mrs. George Mattern, left a widow with two small children to support, on a pension of $35 a, month.

The city should pay this $150 hospital bill at once, thereby relieving Mrs. Mattern of the worry it has caused her.

The city owes that to Policeman The city owes that to Policeman George Mattern, his widow and his

League of Nations.

His statement welcoming a "national referendum" on the league issue was viewed as his most emphatic utterance thus far and also as a skillful atempt to split the Democratic party on this question.

His purpose, it was believed here, was to "smoke out" Governor Cox Policeman Mattern gave his life in performance of his duty. The city should not shirk its duty now. Very truly yours, W. E. B.

FORWARD, THE HEARSES!

Great clouds of gloom! Do they expect everyone to die?
Sixty-five applications have Sixty-five applications have been received by the State Board of Health from would-be embalmers who wish to take the examination which begins Thursday. The practical examination will be held at Harbach's Undertaking parlors Saturday.

Either someons's gotte die on Elther someone's gotta die or these poor chaps will starve.

INCREASE USE OF COTTON

Br-United Press
Y WASHINGTON, July 14.—Cotton consumed during June totalied 555.
521 bales as compared with 474.330 bales for the same month last year the Consus Bureau announced today.

RIOT FALSE ALARM

Riot cars loaded with police carry.
Ing trench guns rushed to W. 25th-st and Section av early Wednesday to quell a reported gun battle in the Mexican settlement. The rumor was unfounded.

Judge Lester Thompson ordered her lease from the Polk-co jail, Wcdnesday.

With Fogle was charged with taking goods valued at $300 from Younker Brothers' store.

Kiwanian Kenneth Smith Is Lucky Guy! He Couldn't SLAYER'S LOVE SUES MOTHER-IN-LAW RADICAL GROUP Buy This Space In The News, But He Gets It Free! NOT RETURNED Carl Fiscus Asks She he Kept from Meddling Carl Fiscus of Valley Junction (thinks his mother-in-law is paying IS IN CONTROL

the first page of The News for love or money! But here you find the smiling time:

Just why a man should be cruel Kenneth Smith. president to a dumb animal is more than I Globe Tanning Co.
Nope, Smith didn't pay for it!
He gets it FREE! physiogmony and a lot of done about Kenneth Smith, president of the Smith Gets the Bacon Last week I offered the lucky member free space on the first page of The News—with a picture n'everything—to boost himself, boost his business, boost Des Moines and boost the Kiwanis Club.

Smith pulled down the prize.

But he's a modest chap—said he never had written anything for a newspaper, that he had always kept out of jail and therefore had never been featured in print—so he asked me to do this skit for him.

Rather imposing on yours truly, don't you think? don't you think? Tough on Ye Editor

Here I give Smith first page-space in The News worth hundreds and hundreds of dollars, and then he asks me to do the write-up he was supposed to do himself.

Oh, modesty, what impositions are Oh, modesty, what impositions are committed in thy name!

First of all, Smith wants the orld to know that he is a member of the Des Moines Riwanis Club, and that he's proud of it. The Kiwanis Club numbers a bunch of live wires in its membership, and its influence

FINISH FIGHT

Harding Accepts Challenge

of Demos on League Issue

By Raymond Clapper

was to "smoke out" Governor Cox on the league issue and force the Democratic standard bearer either to line up solidly with President Wil-son on the league question or come out for strong reservations and break with the White House on the leading issue of the campaign leading issue of the campaign.

Either course, it was believed in the Harding camp, will drive a wedge between the administration forces and those Democratic leaders who opposed President Wilson's course in the treaty fight.

Harding's statement showed a fighting spirit which put enthusiasm into his advisers here

Itigating spirit which put enthusiasm into his advisers here.

The statement today was taken by some to foreshadow a firm antileague stand by Harding, in his speech of acceptance. He frankly declared that America would be involved in the score or more wars now raging in Europe, should we join the league and he drew the in-join the league and he drew the in-ference that America would be called on to supply its army and navy to help settle them.

JUDGE RELEASES MOTHER

Because Mrs. Elizabeth Fogle had I children to care and provide for.

leading issue of the campaign for good is being felt thruout the I'm Boosting a Live One Smith came to Des Moines from Virginia 16 years ago to become con-nected with the Globe Tanning Co. He has been with the one firm ever since. Today he is its president. Which proves that Smith has real business ability.

I'm durned glad I'm boosting live one!

Smith is married and has six children—three boys and three girls. He says he followed T. Roosevett's advice and that his large family is a source of constant joy.

Smith has just built 'em a new home at 3101 Beaver-av—just across the Urbandale car tracks. It's a new style bungalow, and has attracted considerable attention. tracted considerable attention. Smith has, several hobbies.

He likes to drive a motor car. Pinched only once for speeding.) He plays golf without cussing. Other Kiwanians please note.)

> Yep, Smith is a reg'lar fellow. It is a real pleasure, therefore, to in-troduce him to the big family of News readers, and to pass along some of these hidden bits of his history to his fellow members of the Kiwanis Club who, altho they know him pretty well, will know him still better now.

He teaches a Sunday School class

P. S.—The Globe Tanning Co.
makes up fine furs into coats, robes,
etc. It specializes in custom work.
If any member of the Kiwanis Club or any reader of The News is in the market for fine fur work, see Smith at the Globe Tanning Co.

ment of German solders charging fortress of Brick Cheese.

When Kenneth leaves this vale of Weeps,
This life of darn few drinks,
We'll carve his statue out of gold
And place it on the links.

Say Chauffeur Infatuated fairs. With Mrs. De Cordova Lulu Brady and her husband for a

FIND LOCK OF HER HAIR temporary injunction restrained them from interfering with him or Evidences of Jealousy in Tragedy at New London

NEW YORK, July 14 .- "Infatuation of the chauffeur for a woman who never returned it."

des of Mrs. Arthur De Cordova, wife of a wealthy New York broker, and suicide of Bernard Geisler, her chauffeur, near the De Cordova summer home at New London, Conn., according to a statement today by attorneys for the dead

That was the motive for the mur-voman's husband. De Cordova returned to New York late last night with the woman's body. Later he held a twocour conference with Mrs. Geisler, the chauffeur's widow. Neither would disclose the subject of the Theory Strengthened

Further evidence of new strength in the contention of New London authorities that Geisler killed Mrs. De Cordova and then shot himself, was disclosed today.

Authorities learned that Geisler acted strangely before the murder. He was practicing with a revolver,

He was practicing with a revolver, other chauffours staying at the summer resort here said.

Recently Geisler had remarked to a friend, "not to be surprised if you see my name in the headlines in the newspapers."

A lock of blonde hair was found in an envelope in Geisler's pocket. On the envelope was written:

"In case of accident or death, place this under my pillow."

Mrs. De Cordova's hair was blonde.

Had Trouble With Wife Authorities also were informed Seisler had some trouble with his wife and she brought action seeking wife and she brought action seeking an allowance pending suit for separation on ground of crucity.

That Geisler and Mrs. De Cordova had made a previous pligrimage to the spot on the road where the shooting took place Monday night, was stated by several persons who passed the autobacked into the bushes beside the road, shortly before the shooting.

road, shortly before the shooting, were found by officials.

Mrs. Gelsler was expected here early today to claim her husband's hody.

REDS GAIN IN IOWA? Letter Read at Trial Claims That Communists Are Strong Smith Golfs, Never

By United Press CHICAGO, July 14.—A crimson banner led in the legal attack here today on 20 alleged members of the Stretch-Your-Imagination, Beowuldt Can you Comprez a Cuckoo like Kenneth Smith who can Roll-In-the Rough, Biff-Into-the-Bunker, Silee-Into-the-Stream, and never Chirp a Cussword?

No, Angela, bring on the Widow's Weeds—the egg must either be an Etheric Soul or a Deaf Mute.

Can you get the Smith with control of the defendants. The flag caused a sensation in the court room.

A letter from Owens to Ralph Thacter, Davenport, Ia., was read. It said the Communication and the Communication in the court room. aligned itself with the Russian Bol-sheviki and the German Sparticans. Muscathe, Davenport and Clinton are already lined for the C. L. P., Can you get this Smith bird? Lil Cennie, the Kiwania Pride-the Pat-must line up. rateotus T. Barnum could have made a wad the size of your arm with this Blufling Bimbo in his Personnel. Put him in the same tent with the Whiskered Lady, and Nodo, the Wild Boy, y'know, and raise the Admission Price to four bits.

Why, the Peculiar Populace would have transed to be between the wind have transed to the bits. DOUBLE SMOKES ON SAM-Sam Abramson, popular attor-icy at 300 Crocker Building, letter said: the rest of Iowa was wearing a smile Wednesday that wouldn't come off.

The reason?
Twin daughters were born
Wednesday morning at Methodist Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Abramson, who reside at 1110 29th at. Mother and children were re-ported to be doing well. The smokes are on you, Sam! Dig up!

SEEK RAINBOW MEET Des Moines Bids for 1921 Meet of Famous Division

Ralph Faxon, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, wired an invitation to the Rainbow Division meeting at Birmingham, Ala., Tuesday night, to hold its 1921 convention in Des Moines. KILL IRISH CONSTABLES

ly United Press DUBLIN, July 14.—Two constables which was in the motor car.

ASK SIGN REMOVAL

The City Council was petitioned Wednesday by residents living near W. 42nd and Pleasant streets to relove obnoxious signboards bscured the view property values in that section,

THE WEATHER

LOCAL—Fair tonight and Thursday; warmer Thursday; Year Ago Today: Highest temperature 50 lowest 15, precipilation trace. STATE—Generally fair tonight and Thursday; cooler in extreme southeast portion tonight; warmer Thursday.

Omaha OUTSIDE POINTS
Omaha 94 Chicazo
Kansas City 92 Denver
New Orleans 88 Washington D. C.
St. Paul 82 Pittsburgh

WEATHER CONDITIONS

An area of low preasure moved rapidive castward from the central piain states to the lowers St. Lawrence valley, and caused showers and thunder storms from the lower and middle Missouri valley eastward over the lake region. Scattered showers also occurred over the western states. The bits pressure area has its crest over South Davids and the control of the co

IS IN CONTROL thinks his mother-in-law is paying

Committee of 48 Opposed to Platform Drafted

LA FOLLETTE FROZEN OUT

Peacemakers Are Trying to Work Out Compromise

or United Press CHICAGO, July 14.—The amalganated liberal convention, after a morning of parliamentary jockeying to hald delegates in check while the platform committee worked in an cleventh-hour effort to write a newplatform to satisfy Senator Robert M. La Follette, adjourned at 11:50 a. m., ioday, to 2 p. m. It was expected the platform would be reported then. The convention decided to adjourn following an announcement from the conference committee that a complete new draft was being pre-has been delayed a little and clover damaged, but on the whole the moisture has been an ald rather than a detriment.

Contemplate Bolting A caucus of delegates to the Committee of Forty-eight national con-

"Corn has made excellent progress, in spite of the cool weather, Reed says. It is farther ahead than usual in the central and northern districts, and is not more than a week late in the southern regions. It is too early to say that the corn crop rison at which were discussed the proposed platform and the program usual in the central and northern award in the central and northern to be followed by the forty-eighters. It was decided to keep the organization of forty-eighters. It was celded to keep the organization of forty-eighters. It was celded to keep the organization of forty-eighters. It was celded to worthers in thact and be proposed natiform and the proposed natifo rison at which were discussed the

has been benefitted.

Diseases of small grains became noticeable this week, but are too late to cause serious damage.

The hail storms prevalent July 7, 8 and 9, did damage of almost a half million dollars. A great deal of the loss was covered by crep insurance.

right for nationalization of mines and railroads with democratic control, it was said, made the peace offer to the forty-eighters.

The turn of affairs has eliminated several presidential candidate possibilities in addition to La Follette and Henry Ford, whose candidacies were will drawn by the deal her withdrawn by friends night.

Join With Laborites

The liberal organizations which have definitely cast their lot with the laborites include the Non-Partisan League, World War Veterans, Rank and File Veterans Association, In a counter suit against his

In a counter suit against his cousin, J. N. Casady Jr., Simon Casady was awarded judgment for $13.000 against the estate of J. N. Casady Sr., by Judge Lester Thompson, in District Court, Tuesday.

Testimony and evidence showed that Simon Casady advanced more than $24,000 to J. N. Casady Sr. of Council Bluffs, Ia., during the latter's lifetime. All Casady received in payment was two insurance policies totaling about $10,000.

J. N. Casady Sr. was sald to have been worth $100,000 at one time, but alied nearly penniless in December, 1919.

MARRIAGE IS NO GO

Bliss Lasted Three Weeks; Then Mrs. Holmes Gets Annulment Another short-lived marriage roman and was shattered in District many and the conferees builted it out. Buck and James Duncan. Scattle, were the chief spotesmen

Mrs. Holmes Gets Annulment
Another short-lived marriage romance was shattered in District Court Tuesday by Judge Lester
Thompson when he signed, a decree annuilling the marriage of Marjorie Helmes to Charles 1. Holmes. bers. Pinchot, Record and Gilson Gardner were the chief representatives of the forty-eighters. La Follette was represented by his son, Robert La Follette Jr., and Gilbert E. Roe, New York, the senator's former law partner. Dudley Field Malone also was present.

ney separated.
Investigation showed that Holmes and another wife living in Junction Submits New Planks

The fight was confined to the platform. Buck submitted 14 additional planks, said to be even more radical than the original labor platform.

The laborites suggested the additional planks be submitted to La Foliette for approval, a special committee being sent to Madison for that purpose early today. Roe replied his was unnecessary as the senator regarded the original labor platform as too radical.

To satisfy the laborites he got La Foliette by telephone. The latter told Roe it was too late to see a committee with the final session of the convention but a few hours off and authorized Roe to act for him.

Roe then assured the conferees Submits New Planks

Roe then assured the conferees they could regard La Follette as definitely eliminated from consideration as the "third party" nominee. Pinchot, Record and Gardner continued to battle for their program.

ormed the situation formed the situation had been maneuvered to force elimination of them and La Follette as possible leaders of the third party.

Soveral labor delegates today counselled amalgmation of the "third t is understood they were finally inoustody of their two children, Willard Jr. and Charles. Her husband is the son of Sidney A. Foster, vice president of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., who resides at the Brown Motel. Single Tax Ticket NAME STREET "HACORO" party" with the Socialists.

CHICAGO, July 14.—A new na-cional ticket was in the field today, launched by the single tax party, which bolted the new "third party."

t comprised. Robert C. MacAuley, Philadelphia, or president.
R. C. Barnum, Cleveland, for vice

The entire platform, adopted in onvention last night, is: Full rental value of the land shall be collected by the government in-stead of all taxes and all building and other improvement on land, all industry, thrift and enterprises, all wages, salarles, incomes and every profit on labor shall be entirely exempt from taxation.

BELIEVE LAD KILLED SELF

By United Press
CHICAGO. July 14.—Friends of William Farwig, 16-year-old Muskegon, Mich., boy, believed today he ended his life because he couldn't ended his life because he couldn't see his sweetheart.
Police dragged a lagoon in Wash-lington Park for the body when the boy's landlady said he had threatened to end his life there.

RAINBOW VETS PARADE By United Press BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 14. —

BIRMINGHAM. Ala., July 14.—Approximately 2500 veterans of the Rainbow Division, today paraded in the downtown district here, closing their three day reunion.

The veterans were divided into state groups. Confederate and Spanish-American war veterans also were in the line of march, many of whom, like wounded Rainbow warriors, uniable to hike, rode in automobiles.

No Fear Of Flames When Child ATTACK HARDING In Danger, Says Mrs. Boylan of burning, who thinks of being afraid?" (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

MARION, O., July 14.—Warren
G. Harding has opened his defensive and eagerly accepted the Democratic challenge to a finish fight over the League of Nations.

These simple words Wednesday described Mrs. Guy Boylan's feeling when she rescued 2-year-old Junior Payton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nile N. Payton, from the blazing home at 2637 E. Maple st Tuesday.

"Any other woman would have one the same thing under similar circumstances," she said.

Mrs. Boylan when Interviewed

TALK US TO DEATH

Boedal to The News COLUMBUS, O., July 14. — Governor Cox and Senator Harding are ready to fight it out in every home that has a phonograph.

The Democratic nominee has made several short speeches for and these phonograph records. probably will be distributed as campaign literature" by the national committee. Harding did the same shortly after his nomination,

SELLER IN CELL

Exclusive patrons of the Savery Hotel were shocked Wednesday noon when D. C. Pernandez, 29, Spanish salesman of St. Louis, announced that he wanted to take a little rest that he wanted to take a little rest and spread out a lobby rug.

When they remonstrated, he showed signs of fight.

He is finishing his nap in a padded cell at the police station.

TRAIN WRECK AT MELROSE

TRAIN WRECK AT MELROSE

missioner Elliott, blaming each other for the Sunday circus, July 4, decided to rest their cases before the public Wednesday.

"I do not want the public to think I am dodging, but there are so many more important questions up that I don't consider it necessary to issue any statement."

"When there is a child in danger | bore the scars where oil from the flaming gas stove had exploded into her face during the rescue. But she didn't refer to them.

"I rushed into the house and at first did not notice the child," she explained. "I went outdoors and pushed a basket of clothes aside so that Clither histories." that Clinton, who was penned up on the porch by the basket, could run away from the fire."
Clinton is the 3-year-old son of Mr.

Childon is the year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Payton.

"I returned into the house," Mrs. Payton went on," thinking I might save some of the valuables. About five feet from the door I stumbled over an object. It was little Junior, widenly, even the same of the paythen. evidently overcome by suffocation I picked him up and ran out of the

The Payton home burned to the ELEVEN TAKE EXAMS Eleven candidates completed two-day examinations before the State Board of Optometry Examiners, Dr. James G. McMae Wednesday. ters of Cedar Rapids, newly elected of Lodge. Penrose and Sme president of the board, conducted been from the heart beats the examination.

American people for a year of the conduction of the conduction of the board, conducted been from the heart beats the examination.

The battle subsides.

Cox Opens Fire in His First

Cusses-He Says

ron Saint, the Preacher-Against-Pic-turesque-Profaulty! Put that in your headlines, Horace Greeley.

Patootus T, Barnum could have have trooped to see him, like a regi ment of German soldiers charging fortress of Brick Cheese.

When Kenneth leaves this vale of

Campaign Speech

Senator Harding's declaration that President Wilson had forced Cox. altho he did not have the backing of administration forces, at San Francisco, to accept the League of Nations as the dominant issue of Nations as the dominant issue of the campaign.

In a rather sarcastic tone, Cox attacked Harding's front porch campaign, declaring that his listening post at Marion will be as far from the running current of progressive thought as the senatoral oligarchy of Lodge Penrose and Smoothers. of Lodge, Penrose and Smoo American people for a year or more.

ates. The people go to parks to see trained animals, and pay to see Mayor Barton and Finance Com-missioner Elliott, blaming each othbaseball games without giving it a moment's thought. I do not think the large majority of Des Moines citizens have any objections to

Special to The News

MELROSE, July 14. — Four coaches in C. B. & Q. passenger train, No. 12, were ditched early to-day when the train ran into a wash, any other forms of Sunday amuse out near here. No one was injured.

Sary to issue any statement," said secured the consent of all members of the Council before getting the line in the properties of the Council before getting the line in the police of the Council before getting the line in the consent of all members of the Council before getting the line in the line in the properties of the Council before getting the line in the

The state of the s

By Herbert W. Walker

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
COLUMBUS, O., July 14.—Make ing his first campaign statement : stinging attack on Senator Harding stinging attack on Senator Harding and "the senatorial ofigarchy of Lodge, Penrose and Smoot." Democratic Nominee Cox today declared his fight for election will be "dedicated to the task of bringing peace with honor."

DUBLIN, July 14.—Two constances were killed and another seriously wounded when an armed band attacked an automobile in which they were riding from Dingle barracks early today. The raiders captured a quantity of arms and ammunition which was in the motor car.

The statement was in reply t

Why Pick On Public?

Sunday showing of the circus."

Elliott, when told of a statement attributed to Fred Buchanan, owner of the Robinson circus, that he had

NEWS "Want" ads work with a great deal of speed, too, Very rapidly they carry your message to thousands of veo-ple every night and it is easy for you to sell about anything you want to. Have You Something To Sell? Try one; you can find a buyer very easy for anything you have. All you have to do is

CALL WALNUT 210