LONDON (AP) - After a 29minute delay due to a false bomb alarm, Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip took off Tuesday for a five-week tour of Commonwealth territories in the sunny Caribbean.

Philip will go on to the United States to seek a million dollars for charity and more trade for Britain.

Just before the queen and her husband were to board their jetliner, an anonymous caller telephoned London Airport that a bomb was aboard the plane. The couple waited in the royal lounge while security men was found. The caller was a woman who said "Bomb on board the queen's VC10," then hung up. "The queen and Prince Philip seemed quite unconcerned and continued to talk to the official party while they were waiting," an official said.

After weeks of bleak cold, the weathermap gave the queen a springlike sendoff. A bright sun bathed the airport and the temperature was 52 degrees.

The tour will take the royal couple to Jamaica. Trinidad and Tobago and 12 British territories in the area, including restless British Guiana.
