Clues still sought in woman's death

Staff report

Published: November 5, 1996

IOWA CITY - Missouri investigators continue to look for the vehicle they believe struck and killed Laura Van Wyhe. Sgt. Randy King of the Missouri Division of Drug and Crime Control said investigators have received information pertaining to the car, but he declined to elaborate.

Van Wyhe, 21, of 1026 E. Washington St., Iowa City, was found along Highway 136 near Kahoka, Mo., around 1:50 a.m. Oct. 26. She died three hours later at an Illinois hospital.

Preliminary autopsy results show Van Wyhe suffered injuries consistent with being hit by a vehicle.
