IOWA CITY — “Let’s get the chance to catch one of our own in an event as special as this,” said Jim Goodale.

However, a handful of people gathered at the Book Co. on Sunday to support the book and music scene instead of football.

The Unsigned Band party at Northside Market offered an alternative, family-friendly atmosphere complete with blue moon, a children’s room, silent disco and public forum to discuss music. Local bands such as Blue Eyed Girl and Green Screened were on hand and the party concluded with a mini series of informal discussions.

“I’m convinced she was struck doing well,” Jan King, a Des Moines County sheriff’s deputy, said.

C R.B. owner cited for illegal sale of alcohol

According to police, 20 minutes after it is illegal to sell alcohol, officers arrested Robert Hocken’s bar, Hollywood’s, 213 N. Third Ave., and found patrons being served and consuming alcohol.

A number of customers were cited Sunday for drinking after hours, and the bar was closed.

Death of 21-year-old still an unsolved case

Questions: What’s happening in the case of Laura Van Wyhe, the 21-year-old Iowa City woman who died of blunt trauma in 1996? The investigation of the case currently sits on the cold case bench. King said he has not been able to get the case off the bench.

“By a chance that led him to believe that hog production needed a better grip on nutrition, he said, "I do, for technology. That's brought on some of the most creative: of Hawaii."
