

Deaths

John H. Mabry

John Hamilton Mabry, 61, of Burlington, Vt., died Aug. 6, 1984 in Norwich, England, where he was on a sabbatical from the University of Vermont.

He was born in Albia on Feb. 15, 1923, the son of Hamilton Drake and Beulah Long Mabry. A graduate of the University of Iowa in Iowa City, he was a professor of sociology at the University of Vermont. He had lived in Vermont for the past 20 years. He was a World War II Air Force veteran.

Survivors include his wife, Evelyn Bennet Mabry, one son, Drake of Burlington, Vt., one daughter, Caroline of Burlington, Vt., one brother, Drake of Des Moines, and his mother, Beulah Mabry of Burlington, Vt., and formerly of Albia.

The body was cremated. Memorial services will be held in England and Vermont.

Donald Anderson

Donald Anderson, 42, of Des Moines and formerly of Albia, died Aug. 4, 1984 at Bradlawns Hospital in Des Moines.

He was born in Monroe County on Sept. 26, 1941, the son of John and Helen Carlton Anderson. He had been employed by Marriott Hotel in Des Moines.

On Jan. 10, 1981 he married Dianna Maddison. She survives.

Also surviving are his mother, Helen Anderson of Albia, seven brothers, Mason of Des Moines, Lloyd and Gerald, both of Albia, John of Cedar Rapids, Harold of Coal Valley, Ill., Richard of Pleasant Hill, and Ernest of Belton, Mo., five sisters, Evelyn Barker of Des Moines, Audrey Post of Colton, Calif., Virginia Sims of Butterfield, Mo., Ida Mae Collins of Round Lake, Ill., and Mary Darrah of Defiance, Ohio, and two step-children, Bradley Ray and Dustin Craig.

The funeral was today (Tuesday) at the Humeston-Gilbert Funeral Home with the Rev. Richard L. Sebeniecher officiating. Burial was in Oak View Cemetery.

Adair earns service medal

Army Sgt. Maj. Paul W. Adair, son of Milo L. and Wilma E. Adair of Lovilia, has been decorated with the Meritorious Service Medal at Fort Gulick, Panama.

The Meritorious Service Medal is awarded specifically for outstanding non-combat meritorious achievement or service to the United States.

Adair is assigned with the U.S. Army School of the Americas.

His wife, Sherry, is the daughter of Gordon and Mildred Cook of Des Moines.

J. Van Benthuyssen

James Earl Van Benthuyssen, 92, of Bussey died Aug. 3, 1984 at Knoxville.

He was born in Marion County on July 27, 1892, the son of John Wesley and Ruth Perry Van Benthuyssen. He was a farmer in Marion and Monroe counties and a coal miner retiring from Jude Coal Co. He lived in Bussey for the last 10 years.

Surviving are four daughters, Helen Sneddon of Southfield, Mich., Lena Gray of Knoxville, Evelyn Gray of Bussey and Delores Anderson of Cedar Rapids, one son, Robert of Bussey, 16 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were his wife, Annie, one son, one grandchild, and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral was Monday at the Williams Funeral Home in Knoxville with the Rev. Lesley White officiating. Burial was in Greenlawn Cemetery in Bussey.

Martina O'Connor

Martina M. O'Connor, 67, of Rock Island, Ill., and formerly of Melrose, died Aug. 7, 1984 at Rock Island, Ill.

She was born in Melrose on Nov. 12, 1916, the daughter of Patrick H. and Catherine Coughlin O'Connor. A graduate of Melrose High School, she lived in Rock Island and worked for many years in a religious supply company in Davenport.

Surviving are five sisters, Florence Craig of Newton, Agnes Pyle of Russell, and Anne McDonald, Mildred Ciska and Catherine Logan, all of Melrose, and one brother, Walt O'Connor of Des Moines.

She was preceded in death by four sisters and two brothers.

The funeral will be 11 a.m. Thursday at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Melrose with the Rev. Ernest P. Broida officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Calvary Cemetery, Melrose.

Humeston-Gilbert Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Charline Tamerius

Charline Anna Mae Tamerius, 39, of Creston died Aug. 5, 1984 at the Monroe County Hospital.

She was born Jan. 24, 1945 at Concordia, Kan. She lived most of her life in Creston where she was employed at Bunn O'Matic and was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church.

On Aug. 3, 1963 she married Don Tamerius.

Surviving are one son, Mike of Creston, two daughters, Carlene and Debbie, both of Creston, three brothers, Charles of Fairfield, Harry and Mark, both of Albia, two sisters, Charlotte Raley of Albia and Johnnie Franklin of Rose Hill, and her parents, Leonard and Alice Victoria McDanel Milligan of Albia.

The funeral will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Coen-Beuty Funeral Home in Creston with the Rev. Glen Myre officiating. Burial will be in Graceland Cemetery at Creston.

Visitation was Monday and Tuesday at the Humeston-Gilbert Funeral Home in Albia.

Annie Wiley

Annie Wiley, 81, of 605 N. Main St. died Aug. 6, 1984 at Manning General Hospital in Manning.

She was born at Hocking on Oct. 6, 1902, the daughter of James and Annie Young Dale. After her mother died when she was three, she was raised by Hannah and Bill Jones.

She married Charles Wiley. He preceded her in death.

Survivors include one daughter, Alice Chance of Manilla; four grandchildren, and two cousins in whose home she was raised, Mary Clester and Evan R. Jones. Another cousin, Bill Jones, preceded her in death.

The funeral will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Geyer Funeral Chapel with the Rev. David Stout officiating. Burial will be in Oak View Cemetery.

Governor's visit

Rotary District 600 Governor Charles Gabus of West Des Moines visited the Albia Rotary Club Monday night, shared an upbeat and positive message to club members and challenged the club with a number of serious and gag awards. Gabus, owner of Charles Gabus Ford in Des Moines, began his one-year term as District 600 Governor in July. He is pictured with 1984-85 Albia Rotary Club President Max Adler.

OSTRICH RUNS 45 MPH—

Like man, the ostrich moves with a spring or pendulum-type of motion, sometimes both. An ostrich can sprint at 45 mph. Researchers have found that at high speeds large animals move more efficiently than small ones.

WHAT 'SOLID GOLD' IS—

Although the term "solid gold" is usually used to mean pure gold, the Federal Trade Commission allows use of the term for any object containing gold that's not hollow and is at least 10-karat gold.

The Monroe County News

Published Every Tuesday by Albia Publishing Co., Inc.

David A. Paxton, Publisher

Grace Buol, Editor

(USPS 359-320)

Vol. 99 No. 32

August 7, 1984

The Monroe County News
Established 1890

Subscription Price: $15.00 per year in Iowa, $17.00 per year outside Iowa. In combination with the Albia Union-Republican, $17.00 per year, $20.00 per year for both papers outside Iowa. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albia, Iowa, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Second-class postage paid at Albia, Iowa. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to The Monroe County News, P.O. Box 338, Albia, Iowa 52531.

National Advertising
Representatives

American Newspaper
Representatives

84 South Sixth Street
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402
Phone 612/332-8686

Iowa Newspaper Advertising
Service, Inc.

511 Shops Building
Des Moines, Iowa 50309
Phone 515/244-2145

HEARING AID SERVICE CENTER

Aug. 9th

10 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Newton's Drug Store
W. Side Sq., Albia

Beltone
WHEN A HEARING AID WILL HELP

BELTONE HEARING AID SERVICE
118 West Third

Ottumwa, Iowa 52501 684-4920

She's 16!
Happy Birthday
Cheri

Best Friends, Dobi

Albia Union-Republican
The Monroe County News
The Albia Shopper
Albia Cable News

the Albia News papers

109 111 Benton Avenue East
Box 438
Albia, Iowa 52531
Phone 612-911