

July

It's time for chores for the Knowles twins.

Kenneth and Bernice Bettis attended a 40th anniversary observance of the famous sea invasion which marked the beginning of the European Theatre of World War II. They met members of Bettis' old division (113th Calvary Division) in London to begin their tour.

The Albia City Council approved a subsidy of $17,280 for 1984-85 for the Monroe County Ambulance Service.

McCoy Group Inc. of Shellsburg, Wis., announced that it will locate a trucking terminal in Eddyville.

Sister Mary Kayleen Heffron celebrated her Silver Jubilee at Georgetown. She entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Humility of Mary in Ottumwa on Sept. 8, 1959.

A First Responder Class for emergency medical care was completed by 12 Lovilia residents.

Harry Milligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Milligan, disappeared after last being seen in Albia between 3 and 3:30 a.m. July 1. The Monroe County Sheriff's Department continued its search for Milligan and his car.

A proposal to change from six to five-player girls basketball was tabled by the board of directors of the Albia Community School District.

Relocated in 1984

Gary W. Davis, D.O. and Lawrence E. Merrick, D.O., relocated their office to 116 South Main Street in 1984.

Late in 1983 the doctors' former office was badly damaged by fire, and for a time they practiced from a temporary office in the Monroe County Hospital.

Both doctors practice family medicine and are happy to be in a permanent location again.

Gary W. Davis, D.O.
Lawrence E. Merrick, D.O.

116 South Main Street
Albia, Iowa 52531

Phone 932-7176

Heritage Cablevision announced rate increases to be effective in Albia beginning in September.

The Rathbun Area Babe Ruth All-Stars placed second in the district tournament.

Bethany Caskey of 310 A Ave. E submitted the winning entry for the Iowa Habitat Stamp which will be used on all hunting licenses.

The Monroe County Land Use Committee held a public hearing on the land use inventory. The inventory catalogs uses of land that currently exist and gives a comparison of land use that existed in 1960.

Re-districting in the Albia Community School District was approved by the Iowa Secretary of State to be used for the Sept. 11 school election.

A tentative schedule of events was announced for the Labor Day weekend Quasiquincentennial celebration of the 125th anniversary of Albia.

Julie Richmond, 17, of Albia was a participant in Talent America's 1984 Talent of the Year awards in the teen model category held in New York City.

Phil Clouse and Jay Leshen were named to the South Central Conference all-conference baseball first team. Jeff Stuchel received honorable mention.

The Cardinals baseball team won the 1984 Major League championship.

The Albia Lady Dees ended conference softball play with a perfect season of 14-0. It was the first perfect conference record in Dee history.

The Chiefs baseball team captured the 1984 championship in Minor League play.

Julie Yarkosky, Barb Sinnott, Donna Flahive and Sheila Lahrt earned first-team berths on the South Central Conference all-conference softball team. Renae Jones and Becca Shaw were named to the second team and Terri Knowles, Michelle Duer and Sherry Hollinrake earned honorable mention.

The Albia Area Chamber of Commerce held a public information meeting to present an update on activities of the various committee and bureaus of the chamber.

More than 450 people were

Albia Union-Republican

Albia, Iowa 52531

Thursday, January 17, 1985

milling plant near Eddyville.

The Monroe County Multiflora Rose Technical Committee was awarded a $1,975 cost-share grant from the state of Iowa.

The Knockouts of the Ponytail Girls Softball League earned the championship with a 9-1 record.

The 1984 Pigtail Champions were members of the Tornadoes.

Farm operators who suffered severe physical losses caused by high winds, tornadoes, lightning, hail, heavy rains and flash floods during the period of June 7-16 were able to apply for credit assistance from the Farmers Home Administration.

Riders on RABGRAI began a steady stream through Albia on July 26. Organizations and businesses set up food and beverage stands for the wet and hungry bikers whose trip was delayed slightly by early morning thunder showers.

The Monroe County 4-H and FFA Fair and Albia Fall Festival opened with the Bill Riley Talent Show and Riley was presented a key to the city of Albia.

Catch that ball.

working on the construction of Cargill's $100 million corn wet

RABGRAI riders stopped in Albia for food and refreshments.

No Need For A Winter Vacation....

To get a beautiful tan. You can stay right at home and sign up for several tanning sessions and look Tan-Fastic all winter. You can do all this at Cindy's Beauty Hut and Tan-Fastic Tanning Center.

We installed our Solana tanning system in July 1984 and have been pleased with the patronage.

Treat yourself during the cold weather to a great tan. Also, helpful for arthritis and skin disorders.

Cindy, Sharon and Lynda welcome you to the tanning center or make an appointment for a new hair style for a real moral booster during the winter months.

Ask about our special Valentine tanning rates!

Cindy's Beauty Hut & Tan-Fastic

321 So. Main St., Albia • Phone 932-2870