

'Mini' Snow Sculpture Contest

Steamboat Rock's Winter Jamboree

(COURIER NEWS SERVICE) STEAMBOAT ROCK — The second annual All Iowa Winter Sports Jamboree will be Saturday, Jan. 29, at Steamboat Rock. New this year are a "mini" snow sculpture contest, "tubing," surprise sports awards, and gate prizes.

The "mini" snow sculpture contest is unique to the Winter Sports Jamboree. It is believed to be the only winter carnival in the world featuring such a contest. Entries can measure no larger than 2 feet by 2 feet by 2 feet. Contest chairman Mrs. James Potgieter of Steamboat Rock has announced that prizes will be given in three categories: elementary (kindergarten - 6th), intermediate (7th - 8th), and adult (9th - 12th).

"Tubing" will be another Jamboree highlight. "Tubing" is a snowmobile associated sport. A tractor inner tube is pulled behind a snowmobile to give tube passengers fun and thrills. Tubing and snowmobile chairmen is Royce Luiken of Steamboat Rock.

Family Fun

The Winter Sports Jamboree features all winter sports and is geared to family fun. The snowmobile safaris are guided

Judge Rules On Three Cases In Grundy

(COURIER NEWS SERVICE) GRUNDY CENTER — Two young men were given fines on charges of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of an intoxicating beverage and a 19-year-old Hardin county girl was given a one year suspended sentence at the Women's Reformatory at Rockwell City in Grundy County District court Friday by Judge Peter Van Metre.

John P. Wilson, 26, of Dubuque pleaded guilty to the drunken driving charge and was fined $300 and costs and his drivers license suspended for 120 days. He had been arrested Dec. 19, in Reinbeck on the first offense charge. The fine and costs were paid.

Frank Eugene Sprague of Evansdale was fined $500 and costs and his drivers license suspended by 120 days. This was a second offense for Sprague. He had been arrested by local officers Oct. 31, 1971, in the town of Grundy Center. Sprague was given until Feb. 18 to pay the fine.

Donna Sizemore, 19, of New Providence, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of resisting an officer during a disturbance at the Keith Meyer residence at the night of Dec. 23rd. The Deputy Sheriff and Iowa Highway Patrol were called to the Meyers farm where Miss Sizemore allegedly struck the patrolman and resisted arrest. Judge Van Metre gave her a suspended one year sentence at the Women's Reformatory at Rockwell City and paroled her on good behavior to the sheriff of Hardin County as she is a resident of that county.
