said friends of the dead woman were at the apartment helping her move in when her husband drove up and asked to speak to Mrs. Eaton alone.

Friends told officers the couple stepped inside the apart-ment, the door slammed shut and several shots and screams were heard.

Smith said the shooting oc-curred in the living room where officers found a .38 caliber re-volver near the bodies.

Eaton had checked out of a Euless motel just before the shootings, Smith said, and sup-posedly was going to Midland where he had a new job as a certified public accountant.

County medical examiner Dr. Feliks Gwozdz ruled Mrs. Easton's death a homicide and Easton's death due to a self-inflicted wound. Dr. Gwozdz said the woman was shot five times and Ealon was shot once through the mouth.
