VA questions answered

Q -- What is the current interest rate on Veterans Administration guaranteed home loans?
A -- the current maximum interest rate is 15.2 percent as of June 22, 1982.

Q -- When I purchase a home using a Veterans Administration guaranteed home loan, will my wife's income be considered?
A -- Yes. The spouse's income is considered in the same manner as the veteran's income in determining ability to repay the loan.

Q -- My mother receives Veterans Administration dependency and indemnity compensation (DIC) on the basis of my brother's service-connected death. If we place her in a nursing home, will she forfeit her DIC?
A -- No. In fact, she may be entitled to an additional monthly payment if she become a patient in a nursing home, is helpless or blind, or requires the regular aid and attendance of another person.

Q -- I was previously medically qualified or Veterans Administration pension but was denied due to excessive income. How do I reopen my claim now that my income has been reduced?
A -- Veterans who wish to reopen their claim for pension should complete a statement of income, employment, and net worth, which can be obtained at any VA regional office or medical center.

IMPORTANT REMINDER

VOTE YES X

Your "YES" vote in the special franchise election is appreciated.

Polls open Tuesday, August 3 from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. at the Boyden City Hall.

Marv Pottorff, Manager

Northwestern Bell

Q. What is a franchise?
A. A franchise is simply a legal document that gives Northwestern Bell the right to use and occupy the streets, alleys and public grounds of a municipality in order to place telephone cables and other facilities needed to provide telephone service.

Q. Who votes in a franchise election?
A. Any eligible voter in the community can vote. Voting is limited, however, to the registered voters in the given community, and those living outside the city limits are not eligible to vote in a franchise election.
