Pleasant Acres news reported

Monday afternoon I led sing-a-long with Orville Nettinga playing accordion. Thanks, Orville.

Monday night Bea and I took five residents to the Senior Citizens supper. They always enjoy this very much.

Tuesday there were no activities.

Wednesday Bea showed a movie and served popcorn. The name of the movie was "Waterbirds."

Thursday the Ladies Aid from the First Reformed Church came for a program. They did some singing and also took some children along to sing songs for the residents. This was enjoyed very much. Thanks, Ladies.

Friday, Bea had bingo. Helpers this week were Jo Van Batavia, Henrietta Vander Zwaag, Alberta Kroese and Matilda Sohl. Thanks for your help.

I would like to share this thought by Sallie Bristow. There's something about A crisp fall day To remind us that God is planning His way To take the warmth And sunshine away But leave autumn's glow To brighten our way.

Moret - Vande Stouwe wed

Lisa Moret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verle Moret of Boyden, and Bruce Vande Stouwe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Vande Stouwe of Hull, were united in marriage at 2 p.m. August 21 at the United Presbyterian Church in Boyden. The Rev. Daniel Myers performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore an antique chiffon gown fashioned with full lace, accented bishop sleeves caught in a wedding point cuff. Re-embroidered Schiffl lace richly sculptured the fitted bodice, sheer yoke, and high neckline. The delicately formed hemline skirt fell to a lace accented hemline and chapel length train.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Julie Moret. Bridesmaids were Deb Moret and Caroline De

Berg. Personal and bridesmaids attendants were Bonnie Hansen and Sandy Bonestroo.

Bestman was Dwight Sipma, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Clark Moret and Bruce Gritters.

Flowergirl was Jody Wielenga and the bride's brother Jason Moret was ring bearer.

Vocalists were Ardell De Berg and Clark Moret accompanied by organist and pianist Harriet Fiihr.

Ushers were Leroy Wielenga and Dale Fick. Program attendants were Jamie Wielenga and Jason Bonestroo.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall. Hosts were Clarence and Mable Koele.

Honored guests were the couple's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Engelhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moret, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Vande Stouwe and Mrs. Case Vermeer. The couple resides at 1431 Oak Street in Sheldon.
