Obituary

Lori Lynn Hamstra

Lori Lynn Hamstra, 23, of Ireton died Wednesday, Nov. 2, at a Sioux City hospital following a long illness.

Services were held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 5, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ireton with the Rev. Perry Schefelker officiating. Burial was in Pleasant Hill Cemetery.

Miss Hamstra was born Sept. 26, 1971, in Le Mars. She graduated from West Sioux High School in 1990 and attended Western Iowa Tech Community College in Sioux City.

She was employed by Dr. Richard Hettinger in Sioux City. She hoped to further her education to become a dental hygienist by attending classes at WIT and working part time at MCI in Sergeant Bluff and at the Southern Country Restaurant in Craig.

She was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, where she was confirmed, and a member of the American Dental Association.

Survivors include her mother and stepfather, Gertrude and Eugene Vander Haam of Ireton; a brother and his wife, Lyle and Mary Hamstra of Sioux City; a sister and her husband, Lana and Robb Munns of California City, Calif.; nieces and nephews, Sarah Nicholas and Emily Hamstra, Arrend and Austin Munns and Jason Vander Esch of Elk River, Idaho; a stepbrother, Greg Vander Hamm of Loveland, Colo.; a stepsister, Dianne Clary of Hudson S.D.; a grandfather and his wife, Gerrit and Pat Ver Meer of Boyden; and a grandmother and her husband, Berdina and Bernard Faber of Merrill.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Lisa Vander Esch; a grandfather, Bill Hamstra; and a grandmother, Jeanette Ver Meer.

Gertrude Engeltjes

Gertrude Engeltjes, 82, of Boyden died Sunday, Nov. 6, at Pleasant Acres Care Center in Hull.

Memorial services were held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 8, at the First Reformed Church in Boyden with the Rev. Mark Volkers officiating. Interment took place prior to the service at Sheridan Township Cemetery at Boyden. A family prayer service was held at 9:45 a.m. Tuesday at the Vander Ploeg Funeral Home in Boyden.

The former Gertrude Verdoorn was born Dec. 10, 1911, at Middleburg, the daughter of William A. and Gertrude (Vischer) Verdoorn. On Feb. 27, 1934, she married Lewis Engeltjes at Orange City. They farmed at Ireton, Orange City, and Boyden. In 1974, they moved into Boyden. In March of 1992, they both became residents of Pleasant Acres.

She was a member of the First Reformed Church of Boyden.

Survivors include her husband; five sons and their wives, Gary and Judy of Slater, Don and Alma of Orange City, Bill and Karen of Archer, Larry and Susan of Sioux Falls, S.D., and

Lisa and Brian De Boer

Lisa and Brian are married

Lisa Marie Van Roekel and Brian Terrance De Boer were married Friday, Oct. 21, at the First Christian Reformed Church in Hull. The Rev. Carl Boersma of New Life Reformed Church of Sioux Center officiated.

Parents of the couple are Gene and Carol Van Roekel of Hull and Merle and Paula De Boer of Sioux Center. Grandparents of the couple are Floyd and Marie Van Kley of Sioux Center, Gershom and Edna Van Roekel of Hull, Grace De Boer of Sioux Center, Frances Walston of Oregon and Dr. James H. Walston of Sioux City.

The Maid of Honor was Tammi Van Kley, cousin of the bride, and Kimberly Van Roekel, sister-in-law of the bride, was the bridesmaid. The best man was Jim De Boer, brother of the groom. Dave Van Dyke, friend of the groom, was the groomsman.

Guests were ushered by Galen Van Roekel and John Iverson.

The guest book attendant was Janna Hofmeyer, friend of the bride. Gift carriers and gift attendants were Greg and Ryan Van Roekel, brothers of the bride.

Soloist was Shelly Krommendyk. Organist was Lois Ribbens.

Personal attendants were Carrie Roetman, friend of the bride, and Tricia De Boer, sister of the groom. Flower attendant was Melissa Iverson, sister of the groom.

Walter Kilmanas, uncle of the bride, was candid photographer.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony. Master of ceremonies was Jim Walston, uncle of the groom. A poem and a skit were offered by the bride's family.

Punch was poured by Tim and Nikki Roetman, friends of the couple. Dining room host and hostess were Brad and Linn Ver Meer, aunt and uncle of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Omaha, the couple is living in Sioux Center. The bride is a support manager at Wal-Mart, and the groom attends Northwestern College and also works at Co-op Gas and Oil.

One-day Sale! 439-1075

This time of the year we receive many questions about death away from home. If a death happens while you are on a trip or are away for the winter, call us first before involving another funeral home. The family can save around one thousand dollars by having Memorial Funeral Home arrange for the transport back home. YOU KNOW US AND WE KNOW WHAT TO DO.

Respectfully
