Festival preparations get started

The Tulip Festival is a long way off, but the preparations are already starting. The election of the Tulip Court is coming up on Sept. 30. The Queen's Pageant will follow on Nov. 22.

Queen's Committee chair Connie Korver and co-chair Marcy Grotenhuis along with Don Schreur, the Tulip Festival Steering Committee representative in charge of the court's nomination, have already met with the eligible girls at the three schools in town. Thirty-five girls are in the running this year. At the city-wide election Sept. 30, seven will become court members. Two will come from each of Maurice-Orange City High School and Northwestern College; three from Unity Christian High School.

Everyone with an Orange City address, seventh grade or older is eligible to vote. Each voter will be able to vote for the appropriate number of girls from each of the schools.

The voting places this year are Northwestern State Bank, Sioux County State Bank, Southtown Grocery (from 1-9 p.m.) and weather permitting, the windmill in Windmill Park (3-9 p.m.) Members of the Queen's Committee will officiate at the voting places. They include Connie Korver, Marcy Grotenhuis, Carol Aykens, Betty Ferrell, Irma Fedders, Kathy Kruger, Hilly Plum, Muriel Vander Laan and Jan Wilbeck.

Career center set to help

Northwestern College's Career Development Center is ready to help students, alumni and community members work through their questions and problems concerning careers. The career center, under the direction of Albertena Vander Weele, offers many services, ranging from resume workshops to reference files and job placement.

Presently the career center is planning Senior Information Meetings to assist seniors and others interested with graduate school applications, reference files, interviewing and resume writing.

Everyone concerned about graduate schools, jobs and careers is encouraged to attend one of the meetings. The meetings are scheduled for Sept. 20, 3:30-5 p.m. and Sept. 21, 3:30-5 p.m. and also 7-9:30 p.m. All meetings will be held in the Draayer Conference Room of the Rowenhorst Student Center.

Those interested in attending the meetings are encouraged to contact the Career Development Center of Northwestern College by calling 737-4821, extension 148.

Huibregtse to display photos

Bob Huibregtse of Orange City will give an exhibit of color photography entitled "Western Iowa" from Sept. 15 through Oct. 14 in the Mills Gallery at Central College.

Huibregtse, who attended Central in the early 1950's will be present for a reception from 10-11 a.m. on Sept. 15. The exhibit will be on display during regular gallery hours.

A lawyer by profession, Huibregtse served two terms as Sioux County attorney, and five years as an area prosecutor for the Iowa Department of Justice. His travel in western Iowa during this time provided the variety of scenes and pictorial views reflected in this exhibit.

Huibregtse's last photo show, "South Korea," was given in 1957 at Central College, Drake University and the University of Iowa School of Journalism in Iowa City.

Russ Siders

Kirk Allen

Allen, Siders win roles

Two Orange City residents have been selected to appear in the children's play, Pinocchio, at Northwestern College.

Russ Siders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Siders, will play the part of Master Cherry. Russ is a freshman at Northwestern.

Kirk Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Allen, will play the part of Harlequin, the puppet. Kirk is a sophomore at Northwestern and is studying theatre and computer science.

Over 5,000 children from the northwest Iowa area are expected to attend Pinocchio. Keith Allen, associate professor of theatre and speech at the college, will direct the play. It's the story of Geppetto, a woodcarver, who is given a piece of talking wood which he carves into a puppet, Pinocchio. The play follows Pinocchio through a series of adventures as he pursues his aim of becoming a real boy.

The play will be presented in the mini-gym of the Rowenhorst Student Center on Northwestern's campus. Showings are 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Oct. 7, 8, 11 and 12, and at 8 p.m. on Oct. 9. There is no admission charge.
