STOLE A GOOD LOT OF MONEY

Yesterday afternoon late, a man about 35 years of age went up to the office of Glen Kidd, insurance and bonds, and left with about $32 of his money. He was very systematic in his work and carried it out in a manner that would naturally deceive any one. The man went to the office about five o'clock and asked for Mr. Kidd, who was told that Mr. Kidd was probably at his home. After waiting a short time the man said he would phone Mr. Kidd and permission was given to him to use the office phone. He picked up the phone and removed the receiver, holding down the hook that makes the connection with central and did it in a manner so that Mr. Kidd could not detect it. He then carried on an imaginary conversation with Mr. Kidd, with the office end of the conversation heard by Mr. Kidd, in which he gathered that Mr. Kidd had said he would let down to the office. In the mean time a customer had come into the office to pay Mr. Kidd an account, and he put the money in his desk drawer. The hour drawing clock struck six. Mr. Kidd prepared to arrange the office for closing for the day, and stepped into an adjoining room. While there the stranger took the money from the drawer and when Mr. Kidd returned to the room the stranger casually remarked that he would not wait longer, but would see Mr. Kidd the next day and left the office. When opening the desk drawer a few moments later, Mr. Kidd discovered the money had disappeared. He had a good description of the man, and was out at once and turned the matter over to the police department, and a long search was made for the stranger, but up to this time no trace of him has been found. It is thought he was the same man who took some money from the B. L. Bell office about a year ago in the same manner, that time being fixed just before noon.

GEORGE C. PRICE—OBITUARY

The funeral services of Mr. George Price were held Tuesday afternoon, August 1, from the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. J. B. Ackman being in charge of the services. Mrs. Ray A. Bell and Mr. F. R. Keckman, with Miss Evelyn Eck at the organ, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "The Old Rugged Cross." Burial was at the Woodlawn cemetery, of Oelwein. George C. Price, a pioneer of Fayette county, passed away Sunday morning at the home of his daughter Mrs. Mabel Folsom. Mr. Price has been a resident of this locality for seventy three years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Price. He was born on a farm near Centenary, Fayette County, Iowa on November 28, 1859. He with his parents, two sisters and three brothers lived on a farm in Smithfield township until his marriage to Miss Georgianna Badger on October 21, 1880. Following their marriage they located on a farm one half mile from his father's home, where they lived for twenty four years. Three daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Price, Mabel, Maude and Edith. Mr. Price was always a home-loving man and a kind and a helpful neighbor. He was esteemed as a man of integrity and an honored citizen of Fayette county, because of what he was and stood for. In 1909 Mr. Price, wanting to be near his children, sold the old home place and bought a small farm near Oelwein where they lived until his falling health compelled him to give up his work. Two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Price moved to Oelwein. Last spring they went to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mabel Folsom, where he was tenderly cared for until he passed away July 30th, 1933. October 21, 1931, Mr. and Mrs. Price celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Maude Howard. The many greetings and congratulations they received from their old neighbors and friends were a great pleasure to them. Those surviving are his faithful wife and companion of many years, three daughters, Mrs. H. W. Folsom, Mrs. Ray Howard and Mrs. Emmett Watson, as well as twelve grandchildren and one great grandchild and one sister, Mrs. Wm. Phelps of Emmetsburg, Iowa, and many other relatives and many friends.—Con.

RALPH RATHROCK HIT BY TRUCK

This afternoon about two o'clock as the Black Hawk Freight line was going through Oelwein, the truck struck Ralph Rathrock as he was getting out of a car. The accident occurred at the corner near the Catholic church. The car which Rathrock was leaving was parked and he started to get out of it just as the truck driving north reached the point to pass. Mr. Rathrock was about 45 years of age and the leg which was injured by the accident had previously been injured, he having a wooden leg below the knee. Rathrock was taken to Mercy hospital where he was given attention but it is not known at this time just how serious the injury may prove to be. Mr. Steele says he does not believe he struck him except a side swipe of the car. When the case was reported at police headquarters Steele was permitted to continue on his trip.
