FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED OUT

Late yesterday afternoon the fire department was called to Sixth street SW by a grass fire near the Cities Service bus station. No damage was done before the department got the fire under control. CAR ACCIDENT YESTERDAY Yesterday afternoon about five o'clock a car driven by Harry Stewart of Hazleton and one driven by Frank Hanson of this city collided at the intersection on Fifth Street and Second Avenue NE. Mr. Stewart was coming from the north and Mr. Hanson driving west. Mrs. Harry Stewart received a broken rib and little Ruth Allie who was also riding in the Stewart car with her mother and two other sisters received a badly injured hand. They were taken to Mercy hospital for treatment and are reported getting along nicely at this time. The Stewart car turned over on its side from the impact and was badly damaged. AN UNUSUAL COINCIDENCE Last Sunday the Des Moines Register carried a feature story, getting the angle from Iowa on the national news. Since the recovery act has been set in motion the National Industrial Recovery Act has been used in referring to it in the press as "NIRA." The reporter found that there was a little town in Washington county, Iowa, by that name and at once made a visit there. He returned with the story that the town was named after the first white child born there, Nira Moffett. The facts are that Nira Moffett was named after the little town, she being born there as his first child in that community shortly after it was named. This same "Nira Moffett" is living in Oelwein this time, the wife of Charles E. Packwood. Mrs. Packwood says her parents moved with her when she was four years old, to Ottumwa, but she still remembers many of the old names in the little town which has about 20 population. This is a most peculiar coincidence. D. A. V. MEETING LAST NIGHT The charter for the new organization of the Disabled American Veterans was closed at their meeting at the city hall last night. A good crowd attended the meeting and it found there were 22 names enrolled on the charter. The meeting was opened by Walter Stewart and he then turned it over to Commander McCarty. The newly elected commander gave a very interesting talk on the various provisions of the law governing compensation for disability received in action. Discussions on numerous subjects of interest to the disabled veterans was held. Lunch was served and a good time enjoyed by all the members and visitors. Installation of officers will be held at the next meeting on August 25. The work to be given by the Waterloo post. The territory of the Oelwein post takes in all of Fayette county, the northern part of Buchanan county and the northeast part of Black Hawk county. PRIZE WINNERS AT THE GRAND THEATRE The prize winners at the Grand theatre were announced at the entertainment last night and the theatre was packed throughout the evening. The "Hollywood Premier" developed there was considerable talent in Oelwein among the young folks so far as movie work is concerned, and in this contest which was presented with but four prizes and with about 40 entries, it was most difficult to choose those most entitled to the prizes. The "Rhythm Boys" composed of Albert and Carl Phillips and Wilbur Brown, perhaps would have been rated first by the judges, so we are informed, if based solely on the quality of their product for they are considered extremely clever in their work. But the judges inform us that they were considered by them more in the professional class than amateurs. Another feature that had considerable to do with the result of the judging was the desire of the judges to equalize the matter between the two sexes, so that each would have an equal standing, thus really dividing it two for boys and two for girls. The judges decision resulted as follows: First, Perry and Dorothy Grant representing "New Stars," with their songs; second, James Miller as Jackie Cooper, in songs; third, Arlene Platt, representing "Rhythm Kings" in a dance; fourth, Ioda Mazziotti, representing Lillian Roth in a song. There were to be but three honorable mentions and they were given to little Shirley June Christenson as Baby Peggy in the song "Just an Echo in the Valley"; Alvan Roepke, Dick Shirk, Kenneth Richards and Ed O'Brien as Marx Brothers, in a very clever act; and Dick O'Brien as Harold Lloyd. There were a number of others who should be given mention according to the judges, but they were limited and it was most difficult to make the selections. To judge just from the grades put on makes it most difficult for in such a case there was nothing to judge from except the make up to correspond to the character portrayed. Preceding the presentation of the act there was a short program in front of the theatre consisting of stunts and introductions of the contestants over the amplifier on the street, a program of fireworks and music by the band. Taken as a whole it was a most successful entertainment, the second show requiring up to midnight to complete. Of course there was the regular talkie picture program also.

AMERICA HAS GONE TO WAR

While messages continued to pour into Washington from all parts of the country today, indicating that the nation has lined up solidly behind the President's Emergency Re-employment Campaign, the local committee is receiving orders of 100 percent support from the citizenry of this community. America has gone to war," said Tom Dyer of the local organization of the National Recovery Administration drive. "Yes, that's exactly what has happened. We are at war against an cruel and malicious enemy as ever attempted to riddle Old Glory. Just think for a moment of the suffering and death that have come from this frightful depression of the last four years. "We simply must get our people back to work," continued Mr. Dyer, "and this present drive will do it. Here in Oelwein we hear words of praise and encouragement on every hand from those who have studied the plans and realize that they are practicable and economically sound. Of course, to the two plans for the adoption of the industrial codes and the so-called blanket code. "Very briefly the situation may be explained in this way: In order to build up the nation's buying power to keep pace with the increasing commodity prices, there must be wholesale re-employment—not sometime in the near future but right now. So President Roosevelt, acting under the Industrial Recovery Act first entrusted to General Hugh Johnson the organization of the vast task of working out acceptable industrial codes. This work has been progressing rapidly and satisfactorily. Then in order to speed things up still more and get men back to work more quickly throughout the nation, thus raising the mass buying power to keep pace with increasing commodity prices, President Roosevelt has inaugurated the blanket code. This is quite fully gone into in his recent nation-wide radio address. Substantially all concerns employing two or more persons are asked to join up with the President in a covenant to maintain wages at least at a certain minimum level and restrict working hours within certain limitations. Every employer who signs this solemn agreement with the President of the United States will immediately have the right to display the N. R. A. emblem in his place of business and on his merchandise, too, if he desires. "This will notify the public just what places of business have fallen in line with this tremendous important national patriotic movement, and all such firms are, of course, entitled to the same loyal consideration from the general public that would be theirs were we actually at war with an outside enemy and these firms had some fine display of patriotism shown special loyalty to the Commander of the Army and Navy. "The members of our local organization here in Oelwein have taken off our coats, rolled up our sleeves and we have pledged the Administration in Washington to work to the limit of our ability to get every working man and working woman in the country back to work before any more weeks. "We are getting wonderful encouragement and I am sure that I shall have the honor of reporting to President Roosevelt and Recovery Administrator Johnson that Oelwein has no slackers in this great drive to put an end to the depression and all the misery and suffering that have gone with it. "Yes, America has gone to war—and, as usual, America will win." OELWEIN ALL STARS WIN TOURNAMENT The fast All-Star team traveled over to independence Thursday to the veterans picnic, taking first to the Jesup then independence team into camp by the score of 11-5 and 6-1, respectively, keeping their record clean of 12 wins and no defeats. This team travels over to Cresco soon to play in a tournament of Charles City, Cresco, New Hampton, Independence and Readlyn. FREE TRIPS TO CHICAGO FAIR The Grand Theatre in conjunction with a number of Oelwein merchants and the World's Fair Advertisers have arranged to give Oelwein shoppers and theatre goers free trips to the Century of Progress. An advertisement giving all the detail of this free trip plan will appear in Monday's issue of the Oelwein Daily Register. Be sure to watch for this advertisement you may be the one to secure a free trip to the fair. RETURN WITH MAN FROM MISSOURI State Agent Robertson and County Attorney Cooney returned yesterday from Queen City, Mo., having in custody Lloyd Morgan a young man of 18 years, wanted for investigation in regard to the robbery of Ashley Downing near Westgate, in 1931, prior to his murder a year or so later. This is the charge on which young Dargan was living at Westgate at that time, but at the present time is making his home with his grandparents at Queen City, Mo. There is no new developments to give out as yet in connection with either the murder at Westgate or the one at Fayette, although officers are still tracing down all sorts of clues.
